6.2 Manifestos will only be accepted if submitted by the date laid down in the Election Timetable.

6.3 Manifestos will be displayed on the Union website, and elsewhere as determined by the Returning Officer.

7 Conduct in Elections

7.1 The Deputy Returning Officer, subject to the approval of the Returning Officer, will provide to candidates' guidelines on acceptable conduct during elections. Candidates must act in accordance with these guidelines.

7.2 The Deputy Returning Officer will provide training sessions in the rules of this By-Law and any issued guidelines to all candidates.

7.3 Throughout an election, all candidates must adhere to the following principles of acceptable conduct:

- a. Do only what other candidates have an equal opportunity to do;
- b. Treat all students, candidates and staff members with respect.

7.4. Unacceptable conduct during elections includes but is not limited to any of the following practices (including attempts):

- a. The use of University or Students' Union resources to further the election of a candidate (except where explicitly permitted by the Returning Officer);
- b. The defacement of or interference with a candidate's publicity;
- c. Bribery of voters or election officials;
- d. Threatening behaviour or harassment of voters or election officials;
- e. Producing offensive or defamatory publicity;
- f. Preventing the free and confidential exercise of a vote by voters, including the improper use of mobile devices;
- g. Compromising or interfering with the integrity of the election.

7.5 The Returning Officer may issue penalties to candidates, including disqualification from the election, for breach of the conduct guidelines.

7.6 Candidates may make use of campaigners who assist them during the election. However, the candidate will remain responsible for the conduct of these campaigners and candidates must take all practicable steps to ensure campaigners follow this Bye-Law and issued guidelines. Breaches of this Bye-Law and issued guidelines that are committed by campaigners will be treated as if the candidate themselves breached this Bye-Law and issued guidelines.

7.7 For the purposes of an election, a campaigner is defined as someone who would be reasonably thought to be acting on behalf of a candidate to further the election of that candidate.

8. Incumbent Candidates
