

Introduction

1. Zones

1.1 AberSU currently has the following zones, however, further zones can be established or disestablished at any time at the discretion of either the Board of Trustees, Full-time Officers, Union Council (also referred to as "Council" or "Senedd") and/or Annual General Meeting.

- Academic Zone
- Wellbeing Zone
- Sports Zone
- Societies Zone

1.2 The Sub-groups are co-ordinated by their respective chairperson and regulated as follows.

- a. All Members of AberSU may attend any zone meeting.
- b. All meetings of zones shall be minuted and made available on the Union website.

2. General Provisions

2.1 The Union Executive or Board of Trustees may set up Zones to deal with specific issues as required.

2.2 Zones will be a space to receive updates, discuss issues, networking, speakers, community organising etc.

2.3 Zones may decide to set their own policy/steer but must abide by, and cannot overrule union policy.

2.4 Zones may choose to invite guests to assist with specific issues.

2.5 Formal votes are generally not required. However, if a vote is required, the zone shall decide who may vote, acting in the interest of fairness.

2.6 The informal nature of zones means that there is no quoracy, the group will decide what is appropriate.

2.7 The Chair is responsible for ensuring that the meetings run smoothly.

2.8 The Chair shall be responsible for the agenda of the zone meetings.

3. Academic Zone

3.1 The remit of the Academic Zone is to receive updates on the work of the Academic Affairs Officer, discuss matters relating to the academic experience, and consider the activities and performance of the academic representation system.

3.2 Academic Zone is chaired by the Academic Affairs Officer.

3.3 Academic Zone will meet at least three times per year.

4. Wellbeing Zone

4.1 The remit of the Wellbeing Zone is to receive updates on the work of the Wellbeing Officer, discuss matters relating to wellbeing of students, and ensure that the diversity of the student body is celebrated and supported.

4.2. Wellbeing Zone is chaired by the Wellbeing Officer.

4.3 Wellbeing Zone will meet at least three times per year.

5. Societies Zone

5.1 The remit of the Societies Zone is to receive updates on the work of the Student Opportunities Officer, discuss matters relating to the development of societies, volunteering and RAG (Raising and Giving).

5.2. Societies Zone is chaired by the Student Opportunities Officer.

5.3 Society Zone will meet at least three times per year.

6. Sports Zone

6.1 The remit of the Sports Zone is to receive updates on the work of the Student Opportunities Officer, discuss matters relating to the development of clubs, recreational sport, volunteering and RAG (Raising and Giving).

6.2. Sports Zone is chaired by the Student Opportunities Officer.

6.3 Sports Zone will meet at least three times per year.