

Section A

Aberystwyth Students' Union Complaints Process

1. Introduction

1.1 This document sets out the process for bringing complaints against the Union or any member of its staff (including the Officer Trustees) or any Student Member or Associate, Life or Honorary Member of the Union.

1.2 Where a complaint is made under this procedure about an employee of the Students' Union it will be discussed with the CEO. If it is considered that the alleged actions by the member of staff may constitute misconduct it will be investigated and progressed in accordance with Aberystwyth University's Disciplinary Procedure.

1.3 If the complaint is in relation to the Students' Union elections, this should be directed to the appointed Returning Officer and/or Deputy Returning Officer to be dealt with in accordance with the Students' Union Election Regulations.

2. Stage One

2.1 Where possible, complaints will be resolved as close to the origin of the complaint as possible. All parties will take a constructive approach with a view to providing a solution and acceptable remedy.

2.2 If having pursued this approach, the complainant believes that their concerns have not been properly addressed, or where the complaint is particularly serious or confidential, then the complaint will progress to stage two, set out below.

3. Stage Two

3.1 Complaints received by the organisation will be investigated and led by the appropriate Department Manager in relation to the nature of the complaint. Complaints can be submitted using the online Students' Union Complaints form or in an email covering the points outlined in the form to union@aber.ac.uk.

3.2 A panel will be convened by the Department Manager and will normally comprise of:

- a. Department Manager
- b. Two Officer Trustees not including the President

4. Complaints Panel

4.1 The panel shall liaise or meet with the complainant in order to fully understand the nature of the complaint.

4.2 The panel will then review the complaint to decide if there is a case that can be answered or whether the complaint is dismissed. Examples of this include cases that have already been dealt with and closed by a similar process or where the scope of a complaint is beyond the limitations of the process itself.

4.3 If it is agreed that there is a case to be investigated a summary of the complaint will be put to the individuals named by the complainant, prior to the panel meeting with them in order to understand any alternative perspective.

4.4 In both of these instances, all parties should be made aware that they have an opportunity to provide additional information to the panel after the initial meeting.

4.5 The panel will meet with other parties at their discretion where they believe an individual may have been witness to or party to any incident relating to the complaint.

4.6 Where the panel are meeting with students, any student is permitted to be accompanied by a fellow student for support.

4.7 In the case of a complaint made against a student group, club or society, its president or chair (or nominee) shall represent the group, club or society.

4.8 If an individual (or representative of a student group) named by the complainant fails to attend a meeting with good cause, the meeting may be deferred. Should the panel feel that without reasonable cause, the individual fails to attend two arranged meetings, the panels investigation shall continue in their absence.

4.9 The panel shall:

a. judge the complaint and determine, on the balance of probability, whether an individual or group has acted in a manner that is inappropriate/in contrary to expected behaviour.

b. make a decision on any action as a consequence.

4.10 In the period between a complaint being received and any decision of the Complaints Panel, the alleged offender shall, at the discretion of the Head of Department, have access to services or facilities suspended in so far as it is necessary in order to undertake an effective investigation. This should be considered in relation to the risk of harm or distress to staff or students or where it would be deemed feasible that ongoing access to a service or facility may impact upon an effective investigation.

5. Courses of Action

5.1 The panel may conclude, having considered appropriate representations from all parties, that a complaint is dismissed, partly upheld or fully upheld. As a result of a complaint being partly or fully upheld, the panel may apply one or more sanctions against the individual or group involved:

a. a written reprimand; and/or

b. a suspension of any or all of the privileges of membership of the Union, which for the avoidance of doubt shall not include the removal from office of any person elected by means of a cross-campus ballot; and/or

c. a life ban which shall entail a total ban from Union premises at all times. This shall not interfere with academic commitments or external examinations taking place in the Union; and/or

d. if the offence is committed by a member who is a Student and the offence is found to be serious enough, the Student must be referred to the Student Disciplinary Code of the University. Once the University are notified of this, the Student becomes subject to University's Disciplinary Procedures; and/or

e. where the complaint is upheld against a student group, a suspension of privileges of affiliation, no confidence in the current Committee with immediate effect (groups will be supported to re-elect key roles in this instance); and/or

f. where the complaint is upheld against a student group, individuals in positions of responsibility or the wider membership may be subject to action as an individual; or

g. a dismissal of the allegations.

5.2 The complaints panel shall provide a written explanation of the decision to the individual and/or student group involved.

6. Timeframe

6.1 The panel should seek to ensure that an investigation takes place in a timely manner. This would normally involve seeking to come to a conclusion within the investigation and a communication of the outcomes to the individuals or groups involved within 21 days.

7. Appeals

7.1 An appeal may be made by the sanctioned individual or group on the grounds that:

a. The Complaints process has not followed the correct procedure and/or;

b. New information has become available that for good reason could not be presented during the Complaints Process at the time of the original investigation; and/or

c. The actions applied as a result of the investigation are disproportionate

7.2 An appeal should be submitted in writing to the Students' Union President within 7 calendar days of receipt of the outcome of the investigation.

7.3 All appeals will be dealt with in accordance with Section C of Schedule 3.

8. Further Action

8.1 It may be necessary to consider disciplinary action against staff members as a consequence of issues being brought to the attention of the Union via a complaint. In such cases, disciplinary action shall be considered in accordance with the Company's Disciplinary Policy.
