

Aberystwyth students will grow and show employability skills through University and Undeb initiatives.

- Students' involvement with UndebAber will be fully recognised in any new university employability skills records.
- Collaborate with careers to create engaging events to promote employability and enterprise.
- Improve student recording of any employability skills gained when volunteering or working.
- Contribute positively to university employability initiatives.