	Part Two of Idea	After the idea was passed, newly elected full-time officers had the chance to say why they wanted to go to university council in the next academic year. These students stood: Alice -Llywydd Wellbeing & Liberation. Alice explained that they are organised but can stay neutral to support students needs. She also explained how she hopes to do a PhD and being in these meetings could allow her great opportunities to network and support her future career. Alice: Llywydd Wellbeing & Liberation was elected to Council
1. Idea 2: Should Undeb Aberystwyth discontinue the use of the term BAME (Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic) to	Proposer Speech	Spoken on by Tanaka (FTO). Tanaka explained she wanted to discontinue the term BAME in the Undeb and begin to use the term GEM meaning Global Ethnic Majority. She spoke through the idea on the agenda and explained the process of how this name was decided after focus groups with students. She explained that BAME favours some minorities over others and GEM is more inclusive of what the term and Volunteer Officer role actually is. Speak in opposition: No
	Questions Comment	James Ashford (SOC) – Would Gem replace BAME and be called the GEM Officer? Why majority and not minority? Tanaka (FTO): Yes, would become the GEM Officer

use GEM (Global Ethnic Majority)?		Millie (FTO): The global ethnic majority is not white which is what the name means. Tanaka (FTO): It is an umbrella term.
	Feedback from group discussions	Millie (FTO): BAME is problematic. GEM is not perfect but it is better. We need to market it so students understand what GEM means. Esperanza (FTO): If people don't like GEM in the future it can be changed again. James Ashford (SOC): If it is what students who identify with it want then good. Just need to promote what it is so it isn't confusing. It may be confusing at first.
