

Union Council – Not Quorate
Monday 29 January, 6pm
Students' Union Main Room

We'll catch you next time...

Unfortunately, our Council Meeting on 29th January was cancelled due to low attendance. A Council meeting cannot proceed without 50 voting members. A big thanks goes out to those who joined us on the evening.

As this is the second meeting in a row that has failed to reach quoracy, SU staff will now initiate meetings and discussions with stakeholders to determine the future of such meetings.

In the meantime, the next Student Council is on 26th of February and will proceed as normal. Ideas submitted to the latest Council will be carried forward.

Keep your eyes peeled for more information!
